Three Killed, 125 Hurt In Movie Theatre Panic

NEW HAVEN, CONN., November 28.—All three bodies of victims of the Bluff Theatre fire of last night had been identified this afternoon. One of those killed was R. H. Ferrigno, aged 48, and the other Mrs. Marcella Gowan. The third victim was Timothy Hannon, 38, a watchman in a local factory, who died from a broken neck.

The firemen and police are certain there are no other bodies in the ruins of the motion picture house. The number of persons who received injuries has been greatly increased, from fifty or more receiving surgical attention for burns. The list of injured now exceeds 125, but at noon the number in critical condition remained at five.

Twenty-two of the injured were Yale students. All will recover, it was declared.

Former Mix began an investigation of the fire today.

"We are inclined to the belief," he said, "that the fire might have been caused by a person in the audience, who was seen dropping down in front of the screen upon which the picture was to be projected. There was a shout of 'fire' and panic seized the crowd."

In an instant there was a rush for the exits, but it appeared the most of the people tried to get out the main entrance instead of using the emergency exits at the sides of the theatre. Many cool-headed persons attempted to restrain the crowd, shouting there was no danger, but their work was futile, as was that of the police, which continued to play for some minutes after the first alarm was given. Those who tried to stem the human tide were swept away in the crowd which crushed its way toward the doors.

Fell On Their Heads
Many who had seats in the balcony of the theatre leaped over the rails and fell on the heads of the struggling people below.

Children in the crowd poured toward the exits of the theatre and their parents were in many cases injured while trying to lift them above the press of the crowd.

The theatre building was a frame structure which burned like match-wood. (Continued on Page Six)

Playhouse Crowded
The play house was crowded at 7:30 o'clock, and preliminary features of the entertainment were being enjoyed when the fire was discovered.

Sparks were seen dropping down in front of the screen upon which the picture was to be projected. There was a shout of "fire" and panic seized the crowd.

In an instant there was a rush for the exits, but it appeared the most of the people tried to get out the main entrance instead of using the emergency exits at the sides of the theatre. PAYROLL ROBBERS CAUGHT BY THE POLICE

BOSTON, November 28.—The police announced today that John Dubok, of Scituate, Pa., arrested last night in a room in Everett, where $20,000 was found, had admitted that it was part of the loot in the $28,000 pay roll robbery outside the shoe factory of A. G. Walton and Company, at Chelsea, last Saturday. He admitted also that he was one of the robbers, and that he had taken the loot to his home in Scituate, Pa., and had hidden it in a hole in the wall of a room in a hotel by bank messengers during exchange of shots. Three employees of the First National Bank of this city, who had charge of the money, identified Dubok. He told the police that most of the $28,000 had not yet been recovered. He was taken there on his agreement to assist in locating the funds.

DETROIT, Mich., November 28.—Astounding for detectives two fellow travelers on a Michigan Central train arriving here this forenoon, John Potkewicz, 37 years old, confessed to them that he had participated in the $28,000 pay roll robbery held-up outside the A. G. Walton and Company shoe factory at Chelsea, Massachusetts, last Saturday. Potkewicz turned over to the two citizens $7,000 in cash, which he said was his share of the loot obtained in the hold-up.

Beer, Auto, Cruiser, Are Seized

TOLEDO, O., November 28.—In the seizure of 200 cases of Canadian beer, a thirty-six foot cabin cruiser and a seven passenger touring car early Sunday in a raid at the Wheeling and Lake Erie docks here, federal authorities believe they have a line on a booze running ring responsible for the smuggling of much Canadian liquor into the United States. The crew of the boat and other members of the smuggling band were seized.

Police later arrested George Dittman, alleged owner of the boat and touring car, and Wilder Willoughby, an alleged run runner. The men are being held without bail for the federal authorities.

The beer was consigned to a man named "Richards" at Trenton, Michigan, but federal authorities believe this name was used only as a means of getting the liquor in Canada. The cruiser formerly was the Mildred. The name had been obliterated, however, and X-1172 painted over it. The boat was registered out of Cleveland.

Women Traffic Cops Take One Peep At The Dismal Weather Then Stay Home

NEW YORK, November 28.—Hundreds of New York's women reserve traffic cops called for duty for the first time, took one look out into the cold, dismal rain this morning, and decided this was no time for christening their stunting new uniforms.

Just how many of the 2500 ordered out had reported for duty could not be ascertained. John F. Dwyer, former police inspector, now in charge of the reserves, was scurrying around in the rain, trying to find out.

Calls to police stations from which traffic police squads work solicited the information that few of the women had reported there. It was assumed that some of them had gone directly to their posts.

Newspaper reporters, visiting public school corners which the women were detailed to guard, found few women on duty and these presented anything but the striking picture the women had been expected to make. Their navy blue jackets and skirts and their light blue vests were invisible beneath rain garments of various descriptions. Some sheltered their semi-military caps with umbrellas. Others sheltered them in convenient doorways, venturing out only to help school children safely across the street.

Some women were apparently distrustful of the efficiency of reserve officers of their own sex. Mothers, who ordinarily entrusted their children to the care of the regular policemen, were observed conducting them past the women officers and right up to the doors of the school buildings.

POWERS AGREE TO CLOSE FOREIGN COURTS IN CHINA

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 28.—(By the Associated Press)—A resolution declaring for relinquishment of foreign post office privileges in China was adopted today by the nine powers sitting as a committee on Pacific and Far Eastern questions.

The date of January 1, 1923, was set for the abandonment of foreign post offices and this was agreed to by all the powers, represented except Japan, whose representatives asked for time to hear from the government.

The Japanese delegates, it was said, did not object to January 1, 1923, as the date for abandoning their post offices, but felt that they did not have the authority to agree to that date without referring the matter to Tokyo.

The nine powers committee deferred final action until tomorrow on the question of extra territorial rights in China. The principle of closing foreign courts in China, it was said, was agreed to, but consideration of the formal resolution went over.

Chinese representatives at today's meeting brought up the domestic control of Chinese railways. The question, however, went over for consideration at another meeting of the full nine powers tomorrow morning.

The Chinese railway question, according to Chinese representatives, would necessarily involve the matter of Shantung, which is regarded as one of the big problems with which the Washington conference may have to deal, so far as Far Eastern affairs are concerned.

460 Suspects Are Caught

CLEVELAND, O., November 28.—Four hundred and sixty "suspects" were caught in a police dragnet cast over the city and suburbs yesterday and last night in an attempt to capture the slayers of Policeman Frank Kora, murdered by robbers on Friday night, and Louis Goldstein, a merchant killed by bandits on Saturday morning.

Police court officials say today's police court docket is the largest on record. Officials this morning admitted they had not found any one in the ranks of the "suspects" who fitted in any way to the information on the slayers sought.

Many Of Jurors To Be Women

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 28.—A majority of the jurors in the trial of Arthur C. Burch for the alleged murder of J. D. Bellon Kennedy will be women, it seemed probable today. Of the 12 talesmen in the box, accepted subject to preliminary challenge, 11 were women. Counsel for the defendant by their challenges last week indicated a preference for jurors of that sex. Their 11 remaining challenges are more than sufficient to keep from the jury enough of the men whose names remain unchosen, to keep the male sex in the majority.

The prosecution had only four challenges left at the opening of court today and indications were the jury would be completed and sworn late today or tomorrow.

NEW OFFER FROM FORD ON MUSCLE SHOALS EXPECTED

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Government officials in touch with the negotiations of Henry Ford for purchase and lease of the Muscle Shoals, Alabama, nitrate and waterpower projects said today they expected to receive soon from Mr. Ford a modified proposal, probably a complete substitution for that now under discussion.

The expected offer would be an outgrowth of the recent conference here between Secretary Hoover, of commerce, Major General Beach, chief of army engineers, and Mr. Ford and his advisers. That conference was understood to be non-productive in the way of progress on the offer before the conference.

Differences exist between government officials and Mr. Ford over the original offer, which apparently could not be removed. It also was said authoritatively today that if the proposal was submitted to congress in its present form, that body undoubtedly would not accept it. This belief was said to be justified on the ground that congress is striving to exercise economy and also has repeatedly refused to appropriate more money for the completion of the Muscle Shoals project.

If the Ford plan as submitted was accepted by congress, more than $30,000,000 would have to be made available for the completion of the Wilson dam. Army estimates recently revised by the engineers placed the figure at between $42,000,000 and $50,000,000.

Mr. Ford has offered $28,000,000 for this work and it was understood firmly declined in conference with Mr. Hoover to increase that allowance. Thus, the negotiations have been at least temporarily halted until Mr. Ford in company with Thomas A. Edison can make a new survey of the project.

DEFENDANT DENIES MANY CHARGES MADE AGAINST HIM

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., November 28.—Koscoe C. Arbuckle took the stand today in the manslaughter case against him.

Arbuckle said he came to San Francisco from Los Angeles September 3, and stopped at the Hotel St. Francis. He named the guests at the party in which he is alleged to have fatally injured Virginia Rappe, saying that he had invited no one to the party but Mrs. May Taube.

Arbuckle said he had an engagement to go out with Mrs. Taube a few minutes after Miss Rappe is alleged to have been injured by him.

"I found Miss Rappe in my room. She was on the bath room floor very sick. I assisted her."

"She was holding her abdomen and I gave her some water."

"I helped her into the bed," Arbuckle continued. "She said that she had dizzy spells often. Then I went back to the bath room. When I returned Miss Rappe was on the floor rolling and moaning. I placed her on the bed again."

"While I assisted her, Miss Prevost and others entered the room. I went into another room and when I came back Miss Rappe was on the bed, tearing her clothing."

Arbuckle said he was dressed in bath robe and underclothing. The bath robe was introduced and he identified it.

"Mrs. Delmont, a guest of the party, told me to leave Miss Rappe," Arbuckle testified. "I told Mrs. Delmont to 'shut up' or I would throw her out of the window."

Arbuckle told of taking Miss Rappe from the room and into another room with the assistance of Harry Boyle, assistant manager of the hotel. The door leading from his room to the corridor and a window of the room were open, he said.

"I did not hear Miss Rappe say, 'He hurt me,' or say anything that could be so understood," he testified.

He denied having forced Miss Rappe against a door or having told Alfred Semmenger, a guest of the party, that he applied ice to Miss Rappe's body.

He denied testimony by Jesse J. Norgard, janitor of the Colver City, Cal., motion picture studio, that he offered Norgard a sum of money for the key to Miss Rappe's room.

His direct examination was finished at 10:50 a. m.

Arbuckle's testimony followed a full attempt by the defense to have the testimony of Ignatius H. McHenry, finger print student, admitted. His testimony was desired to offer testimony by E. C. Heinrichs, finger print expert, regarding finger prints on the doors of Arbuckle's rooms in the Hotel St. Francis.

Arbuckle said he did not know Mrs. Delmont previous to September 5, the date of the party in which Miss Rappe is alleged to have sustained her injury. During the party Miss Rappe telephoned to a Mrs. Spreckles, he said. This is believed to be Mrs. Sidi Spreckles, widow of John D. Spreckles, Jr.

Arbuckle never saw Alice Blake, a guest of the party, in his life before the affair, he said. Miss Zey Prevost, another guest, also was a stranger to him, he said.

"I had no idea that Miss Rappe, Mrs. Delmont, Miss Blake or Miss Prevost were coming to the party until they actually arrived," he said. (Continued from Page 9)

SAFETY

That word SAFETY is real.

It is true.

Because, backing up every dollar we loan is sound, tangible real estate.

Our business has to be conducted that way.

Our charter provides real estate as the only security we can take for a loan.

And every great student of busi-

LAND is the soundest form of value.

So when we say SAFETY, we mean SAFETY—and we are

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys
If Your Bladder Bothers
You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority.
because the uric acid in meat excites
the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up, cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and migraine, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy;
take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This tasteful salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—

Revival Is Well Attended

The revival at the Portsmouth Baptist church on Mahert Road continues to be well attended.

Last evening Evangelist Hay brought a powerful sermon to a crowded house, his text was "Brethren be not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, or of me His prisoner."

He said in part:
The Apostle Paul entrusted his brotherhood to be not ashamed of the gospel of Christ because it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believe.

"God is sending His Holy Spirit into this world in conviction and reproving people for their sins. God commands men never to repent; repentance and faith in Jesus brings this wonderful salvation.

God showed forth His power in a mighty way; the altar call was made.
Five came forward to the altar and one prayer through to victory. Many souls are finding salvation in the old fashioned way.

Eighteen have united with the church in this revival.

The Lord is using Prof. Hay to bring real soul stirring messages in the song services.

God is surely honoring His word in these services. Brother Hay is not afraid to declare the whole truth.

All who are hungry for the truth come to these services.

They begin at 6:30. Also services taken into custody shortly after four

Army Goods store, Gallia and Gay

On being taken to police headquar-into the store, and their appearance supported their stories as both were dyed out in new outfits from head to foot, including hat, underwear, shirt, shoes, socks, suit and raincoat. They made the change inside the store and left their old apparel behind, they said.

The youths gained entrance to the building by smashing a pane of glass in a rear window. Both will probably be sent to Juvenile court by reason of their age.

Six Cent Fare Is In Effect

The Irononian Sunday morning
said:
Announcement is made by Manager Allen Thuma, of the local branch of the Ohio Valley Electric Railway Company that there would be a revision of fares on this branch, effective at once.

The six cent fare will go into effect within the corporate limits of Ironton and this same will apply to trips from the north corporate limits of Ironton to Coal Grove, the fare from the north line in West Ironton to Coal Grove being six cents. Similarly it will cost six cents to go from the south corporate limits of Ironton at Lee Creek Bridge to Hanging Rock.
Through fares from Hanging Rock to Coal Grove and vice versa will be 12 cents under the new plan, there being but two collections. As it now stands, there are three fare collections and the fare from the end of the car line to Hanging Rock or vice versa, is 15 cents. The six cent fare is effective in many of the cities of the tri-state.

Letters From Our Readers

I have read with interest the letters that have appeared in the "Times" relative to capital punishment and the pleas for and against it.

Roy Chamblin confessed to a crime that has few parallels for cold, cruel deliberation and no doubt will pay the extreme penalty in the electric chair at Columbus but will society have gained anything by the doing of it?

Did the judge as a representative of society take into consideration the pre-natal and post-natal influences, heredity or the environment in which this boy lived and had his being?

Did the thought ever occur to many that certain unseen evil forces take advantage of some weak minds on this earth plane to gratify their own vicious desires and passions?

When the law or any other institution sends an undeveloped soul into confinement with all the passions, desires and evils of the animal man and in ignorance of all divine law that governs his being, that soul is earth bound and will seek and find an open door for the expression of those vices through some weak minded person in the flesh here.

You can take the body away from Roy Chamblin but you cannot destroy his mentality, soul or life. When you send his soul to eternity in his present state of undevelopment you have released another ignorant earth-bound soul.

By all means put murderers where they can do no harm but before you send them into eternity bring them to a realization of right thinking, cultivate constructive instead of destructive thoughts and develop their souls so that they will enter the next plane a power for good and not for evil.

If you want to insure your car, or property of any kind, we would be pleased to do it for you. Office open evenings from 6 to 9 o'clock.

Zymbalist And "Greatest Of All Women Pianist" To Appear Here

Rarely has the local public been given an opportunity to hear two such artists as Zymbalist and Yolanda Merz, who will be here on the evening of December 12. Either artist, Zymbalist, the violinist, or Merz, the pianist, would be a rare treat to all lovers of music, and when both appear on the same evening it marks an epoch in local musical circles.

Eileen Zymbalist is termed by the "Dean of Music Critics," H. B. Krehbiel, "an artist with a peculiarly subtle tone, a musician and an artist, every inch of him in all his instincts, an intelligence, feeling, in his strong, easy, graceful bearing." This quoted portion of a notice from the New York Tribune is perhaps as clear and exact as a bit of criticism as any artist has ever received. It does not gush, nor is it bristling with careless superlatives. Mr. Krehbiel is not given to that form of reviewing. Opinions of Zymbalist's playing have never been at variance; the entire critical fraternity has always esteemed him highly for the absolute sincerity and beauty of his performances.

Yolanda Merz for a dozen years has held a foremost place among the pianists who have played for the American public and each year her favor grows, as her art itself grows. The Philadelphia Inquirer asserts that she "has the art of eliciting from the piano that ringing tone of which so few have the secret. She is a brilliant executant with a technique equal to the most formidable difficulties and who plays all styles of music with unflinching efficiency and fine effect." At the same time the Philadelphia Record made an interesting statement that "she demonstrated anew her right to be called the greatest of all women pianists."

FAR EASTERN QUESTIONS HOLD CENTER OF STAGE AT THE ARMS PARLEY

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 28.—(By the Associated Press)—The arms conference entered the third week of its deliberations today with far Eastern questions continuing to hold the center of the stage. Formal disposition of the questions of extra-territoriality and postal rights in China, through specific declarations prepared by sub-committees, was the pre-arranged business of the conference on convening this morning for another committee session.

The declarations will express the agreed attitude of the conference that the system of foreign judicial courts and also the foreign post offices maintained within China shall be withdrawn as speedily as conditions warrant. The virtual decision of the conference to send a commission of international jurists to investigate the efficiency of the Chinese courts was to be embodied in the declaration relating to that subject.

Spokesmen of the two other of the participating powers Senator Schaefer for Italy, whose delegation he heads, and Vice Foreign Minister Hanikura for Japan, one of the four members of that delegation, had joined today with Rene Viviani, head of the French delegation, in endorsing President Harding's informal suggestion that the present conference might be a starting point for a continuing series of conferences to examine world problems. Senator Schaefer expressed the conviction that adoption of the plan would "represent the greatest and most beneficial result of the Washington conference," while Mr. Hanikura said he believed Japan would be ready to take part in any future conferences "with the great object of maintaining a harmonious co-operation of the powers toward world peace."

It would be "the old League of Nations under another name." It would "engage in precisely the same kind of work," said the Idaho senator, adding: "It is not what you call it, but what it is, that counts."

Negotiations on the naval side of the program were expected to assume a more prominent status this week, with the possibility that another plenary session of the conference would be called to reach a final decision at least on the most vital element of the American reduction proposal—the "5-5-3 ratio" of fleet strength between Great Britain, the United States and Japan.

This would follow a report to the "big five" committee on the facts and conclusions developed in the technical committee now considering the subject.

Coupled with the fact that there has been no indication that the American delegates have receded from their adherence to the fleet ratio as proposed, were reports in circulation today that Japan failing to have her own standard of measurement, accepted for fixing the ratio, was quite disposed to accept the ratio in the American proposal.

In entering the plant the thieves removed a whole window from the frame and according to police, attached a block and tackle to the top of the frame and lifted the safe through onto skids and into a truck.

THE SLOUCHY MAN NEEDS A LIFT

Has Clogged Blood and Should Take Gude's Pepto-Mangan

The man who walks with a slouch usually has a heavy, dull expression on his face. The eyelids droop in a lazy languid way and he goes around feeling dead tired most of the time. Bad blood, all clogged up with poisons from the system, makes a man feel that way.

That man with bad blood has let himself get in a rundown condition. He has overdone somehow, either physically by straining, trying to do too much, or mentally by worrying, doing without sufficient sleep. He needs new blood.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan taken in regular doses every day is just the right blood builder. It drives off all the poisons. It makes blood, rich and red. When the blood gets back to normal, the color improves and the eyes brighten. It braces a man up.

Druggists sell it in liquid or convenient tablet form. The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on each package—advertisement.

The Lord Mayor "Weighs In"

Bouquets For Dry Missionary

In some sections of England they still cling to the old custom of publicly weighing the lord mayor when he is inaugurated. Maybe it's in line with the old adage "weighed and found wanting." Or maybe it's to see how much he will gain while mayor. This picture shows G. H. Taylor being weighed as he begins his term as lord mayor of an English city.

Synopsis
George Randolph Chester, internationally prominent as an author and creator of the likable vagabond, Get-Rich-Quick-Wallingford, took many months to transfer to celluloid the great story that he had been thinking about for years—ever since he wrote the first Wallingford story and made the name of the relick producer a household word. He made a great score before the camera were secured for the time which took many months a small fortune and several thousand actors to produce. When he had finished he had something entirely different. Its human qualities hold. A simple love scene between Mary Curtis and Jimmy Wallingford demands as much attention as the magnificent pageant scene patterned after an old Indian durbar with its gaily caparisoned elephants and camels and thousands of costumed participants. In addition to this there are big spectacular scenes on a lake of burning oil. These are the greatest fire scenes ever filmed. Ten tanks of oil were spread upon the especially constructed lake which cost over $20,000 to produce. The blaze shot up in whirlpools hundreds of feet in the air and twice the diameter of a man's waist. It burned for ten days steadily.

Every character was selected with care and precision so that in the finished production every type would be faithfully portrayed and visualized as they had been in the Wallingford household. Some of the best actors before the camera were secured for the exceptionally large cast. See it at the Eastland tonight.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

THE MARK OF ZORRO

from the "All Story Weekly" novel "The Curse of Capistrano" by Johnston McCulley Directed by FRED NIBLO
Here's the picture in which the world's greatest exponent of good cheer and humor gives you a genuine riot of fun and thrills—pep and action—comedy—love—guaranteeing to drive away all your blues.

Douglas Fairbanks Comes to the Temple Theatre Tonight and Tuesday in his latest big act production "The Mark of Zorro," 3 reels of the most thrilling action and death-defying stunts that you have ever seen. Don't miss it. Advance in prices.

In keeping with the letter of the sagacious critics that the supreme test of a successful photoplay should be characterized in the first instance by a good story replete with action, Douglas Fairbanks in "The Mark of Zorro," a United Artists production that is to be shown at the Temple Theatre beginning tonight has certainly, among other things, fulfilled that requirement.

This story adapted from Johnston McCulley's "The Curse of Capistrano" that was featured serially in the "All Story Weekly" magazine, can be safely said to surpass all of "Douglas's" previous screen productions and to establish a new record in expensive film creation. The main action of the story has its locale early Southern California with its colorful, picturesque, idyllic life as existed before Americans migrated to its borders. Indolence reigned in the picture play until the agile "Zorro" enters the scene and hence all become hurried to the greatest amount of activity as usually transpires wherever he makes his appearance.

Full of swift, heisting action, there is a strong love interest quite different from that attempted by Fairbanks heretofore.

At Last—The Picture You Wanted To See Is Here—For Three Days Only, Matinee and Night, The Eastland Theatre Will Show Vitaphone's Big 8 Reel Special, "The Son of Wallingford," Presented at Regular Eastland Prices—Matinee 10 and 20 Cents—Nights 15 and 30 Cents Shows Starting at 1:00, 2:30 and 8 p. m. Don't miss it.

A-Parthe Presents Harold Lloyd in "The Altruist."
B-Prizma Films Presents "Tommy" in "Natural Colors."
C-Overture to "The Son of Wallingford"—Eastland Orchestra.
D-Vitaphone presents "The Son of Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford."
With all the big spectacular scenes "The Son of Wallingford," which will be shown at Eastland Theatre tonight, is a logical, human story and does not depend upon grandeur of production for its entertainment. They are as much real and human interest as a simple love scene between young Jimmy Wallingford and Mary Curtis in the mammoth stagings of the poignant and lake of burning oil for which the production has become noted.

The scenes in which Mary and Jimmy participate as a couple in love are not all simple, however, one of their scenes is probably the most spectacular, and certainly, the most daring ever filmed.

Miss Dolly Wise—Would you please print in your column the following question: Why was there not a few electric lights placed along the Bonser Run road or now it is called Bonser Avenue? There is not a light along this road and a great many people have to travel this road who work in the mill and shoe factories and they have to go early in the morning and get home late in the evening and quite a number of these are girls. We are paying city taxes and why not have some of the benefits? We feel that we are just as much entitled to a few lights as the rest. I do not expect you to answer this question, Miss Wise, but there are some who can answer it.

Concili will probably place lights along that ave. as soon as they get to it. In the meantime you might ask your councilman to bring the matter up before Council or present a petition from the property owners along that avenue asking for lights.

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did and in a short time felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good."

—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or spots before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.

CONFESSIONS OF A MOVIE STAR

CHAPTER XXXIV—"LOVE" IN ALL MY PLAYS

MANY of the popular ideas about a movie star's existence are curiously confused. The ordinary impression seems to be that the more successful a star is, the less she has to do. Girl aspirants for movie honors fancy that a princess of the silver sheet has but to don her royal train and crown and "pose" before the camera. And dainty maidens wishing an "easy job" believe that it doesn't take much longer to make a play than the time required to project it upon the screen.

How many times have I wished that I could succeed according to that simple scheme!

I have always wished it in mid-summer, when other schoolgirls of my age are laying "a long vacation." Why, even kitting a sweater in the cool of a garden appears to me.

While I am acting one role, I am preparing for the next.

Our producer doesn't care for seasons, but he did invent for me a succession of unrelated tales with the word "Love" in every title. I was to play them because I was the spirit of unrequited first love, he told Mother-dear.

And then there were my costumes to design, order, and fit. In the beginning, I rejected excellently in my long shopping tours but very soon they became trying ordeals.

The cost of my wardrobe subtracted huge sums from my attractive salary. The movie make-up, grease paint and pale yellowish powder, ruins the garments an actress wears. I had to get reconciled to making out large checks for exquisite costumes which I would wear but once.

In some studios where I have worked the property man takes over the costumes, which, if cleanable, promise to be usable. If the grease paint comes out, he sells the clothing at half price.

But some studio superintendents insist that it is wiser to pay the stars well and let them stand the losses of costuming.

Even a frock which survives the fray cannot be worn by a movie star in public. It would be most annoying to be recognized by one's dress, and followed—even by admirers.

In planning my wardrobe for "Love Lane" I had a bright idea. I was to be a simple country maiden with Dick as the tempter—from town.

I decided to use a little blue lawn frock which had rather fascinated Jimmy Alcott that happy summer in the Vermont mountains. It would please Dick. It might provoke him or surprise him into a semblance of his old frank self.

George Randolph Chester
Presents His World Known Story

"The Son Of Wallingford"

The story is considered the greatest achievement of the authors. About twenty years were spent preparing for this narrative. Soon after the first Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford story appeared in print Mr. Chester began to plan this great masterpiece which would surmount all the others. The same care was exercised in making the film and the result is one of the greatest pictures ever produced.

Many Spectacular Scenes

A pageant in which a menagerie, 8,000 players, two tons of confetti and 10,000 toy balloons are used makes one of the big scenes. This is in decided contrast to the lake of burning oil which forms the big thrill of the picture.

wood. Yale students were active in the work of rescue, rushing into the burning structure and assisting the people to safety.

A check-up of students in Yale University was under way during the morning to ascertain if any one was missing. The body of the young man which is at an undertaker's is believed to be that of a city man. No student has been reported as missing. Evidence brought out this far in the inquiry tends to prove the assertion of spectators that flames from an incense pot ignited something close to the drop curtain, which was made of inflammable material. It is said that stage employees tried to extinguish the slight fire but it got away from them. The burst of flames which went out into the house may have been caused by a draft of air from lack of the stage.

Police Captain Colane, who, with his daughter, was standing at the rear of the crowded theater, thought the stage light and smoke was a part of the production until the spectators surged toward him in a condition close to panic. He said the conditions seemed to change in an instant and he was borne out by the rush, but went back to help in the rescue work. In another minute or two, he said, the house was everywhere.

Large Audience Enjoys Vesper Service

A large and appreciative audience was present at the second Vesper Service of the season at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. The musical was the very finest of any that has ever been held and every one was delighted with the variety of artistic numbers presented.

In offering a program to the public of such extraordinary quality the organist, Miss Anna Cramer, is to be highly commended. Not only were the numbers well rendered in every particular, but each number was made particularly attractive because it was made unique and different from all the others. Instrumental and vocal numbers were evenly divided in the program, yet each was different from the other in the types of instruments used and in the combinations of voices.

Following upon the excellent organ solo by Miss Cramer, in which she played the "Overture to William Tell," the choir sang the only anthem of the program, Mrs. B. F. Kimble and her daughter, Bernice, who is home on her vacation from Wooster College, sang a duet in the course of the number, and Mr. Matty Ruggles took the solo part, both with excellent effect. The third number was a tenor solo by Mr. Fred Lorey, entitled "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," written by Gounod and sung as it was by one of the best tenor soloists in the city it could not help being of extraordinary quality. Perhaps the most outstanding feature of the service was a Duo Concertant, an organ and piano duet, in which Miss Margaret Stahler was at the piano. The sharp and brilliant tones of a piano blending in contrast to the even quality of tones which emanate from an organ, invariably produces upon the ear an extremely pleasing effect. Miss Stahler's stellar work at the instrument, mostly played but seldom mastered was recognized as most artistic. Following this duet, the Pastor's Choir Quartette, the personnel of which included the Misses Blood, Stahler, Jones and Patton, sang a number entitled "He is Mine." A soprano solo by Mrs. H. C. Hugh received much praise throughout the congregation. The last instrumental number was a trio including the violin, flute and organ. Mr. Foster Krake and Mr. Walter Gableman played the first two instruments mentioned and this number in itself was worth attending to hear. The program was very agreeably concluded by vocal trio sung by Mrs. James Williams, Mrs. McKinley Davis and Mr. Matty Ruggles.

On the Sunday evening before Christmas the choir will give a cantata entitled Bethlehem, to the public, which will be the last of these series of services.

T. C. McCONNELL CLAIMED BY DEATH

A citizen held in general esteem by all, Thomas Chalmers McConnell, who suffered a stroke of apoplexy Saturday morning, passed away this morning about 7:30 o'clock at his home, 1929 Nineteenth street. News of his death will come as a decided shock to his legions of friends, who were unaware of his sudden illness. Although only a resident of Portsmouth for about six years, he had, through his work in the job printing business won hundreds of friends, who will join with the family in their hour of sorrow. All that loving hands could do was done but it was of no avail, this splendid citizen heeding the call of his Maker and passing on to that world of Eternal Rest this morning.

Mr. McConnell arose as usual Saturday morning and after being up only a short while complained of pains in his body. A short time later he suffered the stroke of apoplexy which proved fatal. At the time he was stricken he spoke to his wife and told her goodbye, adding that his time had come and that he was prepared to answer the final call.

Although unable to speak, his brain was active and he recognized his wife and friends Saturday and Sunday. He was a good and upright man, one that the world will miss.

Thomas Chalmers McConnell was born July 12, 1850, in Belmont county, O. He was a son of John and Margaret McConnell, the City of McConnellsville, of Morgan county, being named after the early McConnells of this same family.

At the age of six Mr. McConnell's parents moved to St. Joseph, Mo., the greater part of his life being spent in the West. While at Santa Fe he was appointed deputy revenue collector under President Roosevelt and he worked as collector for nearly fifteen years, being transferred at his own request to Owensboro, Ky. He was deputy revenue collector in Arizona and New Mexico.

He also lived for sometime at Holton, Kansas, where he held a number of county and village offices. He was county clerk when he was made assistant editor of the Tribune at that place, his wife finishing his term in the county clerk's office.

After nearly three years at Owensboro, Ky., Mr. McConnell left the revenue work and came to Portsmouth, buying an interest in the Conger print shop on Front street. Later he took over the entire business and after moving to Cliffside street near Third where he established the McConnell printery. It was six years ago in March he came to the Peerless City. About a year ago when he went back to St. Louis to take up revenue work again he sold the print shop to Warner Chapman who has continued the business under the McConnell printery name.

A year ago last July Mr. and Mrs. McConnell enjoyed a trip to California for his health. They made many stops in the West and visited many old friends of Mr. McConnell.

Mr. McConnell was married twice, his first wife and three children having passed away years ago. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nellie McConnell and three children, Mrs. Carl A. Bishop of Santa Fe, New Mexico, who is on her way to Portsmouth, Chalmers McConnell of New Orleans and Eugene McConnell attending college in Washington, D. C. He was expected home today for the funeral.

A sister-in-law, Mrs. Bertha Bardshir, of Clyde, O., has already arrived for the funeral.

Mr. McConnell, the youngest and last of a family of seven children, improved all his opportunities as a young man and made a success of life. He was an untiring worker and could be found working at his business long after others had retired. He was a citizen held in general esteem by all. The one predominant trait which gave form and texture to his whole character was his utter detestation of insincerity. Not a grain of dissimulation infected his character. No motive of worldly policy could induce in him the slightest departure from an honest conviction. His loyalty to truth was ingrained and incorruptible.

He would face the whole world in defense of his convictions. However much one might differ from him in belief there was that in him which proclaimed that in his inmost heart he felt himself impregnable in his position. His clear steadfast eye carried the strong assurance that he was a man who had the fullest courage of his convictions. This was a trait in his character that caused everyone who knew him to respect him. In all business transactions he was the soul of honor, positive in manner, truthful in statement and prompt in decision. Among those who knew him his word was a guaranty. He was a man proud of his fulfillment of his duty to his family.

The deceased was very religious in his tendencies, being a faithful attendant of Second Presbyterian church and Sunday school. He was a member of Attorney B. F. Kimble's class of that Sunday school. His parents were of the United Presbyterian faith.

Mr. McConnell was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge for thirty-five years at Holton, Kansas.

Funeral services will be held probably Wednesday with burial at Clyde, Ohio.

Chicken Fanciers Meet Tonight

Now that the Portsmouth Poultry and Pet Stock Association has definitely decided to hold a show in Hor's hall, Gay and Gallia street, beginning Monday, December 12, and continuing all week, the members expect a rousing meeting, this evening at the above hall when plans will be perfected for the holding of the exhibit. Judging from the interest taken in the event it is thought there will be more than 200 couples of chickens and a large number of pigeons and pet stock on exhibition. The merchants of Portsmouth will be solicited for premiums and they will no doubt come across handsomely with suitable prizes, making it worth while for the fanciers of Portsmouth and vicinity to place their birds on exhibition. The show will be open every afternoon and evening and the admission will be but 10 cents and 15 cents. The show will rival any similar event ever held in Portsmouth, and an invitation to compete and exhibit has been sent to all the surrounding towns and cities.

Ishii Pact Seen As Parley Crux

Discussion of Lansing's Agreement Big Test of Conference, Says

BY WM. PHILIP SIDMS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The ominous dispute waged for years as to the meaning of the Lansing-Ishii agreement under which militarist Japan virtually lays claim to domination of China will be renewed at the arms conference here—and settled. This agreement, signed at Washington in 1917, is the only key to Japan's position in China but to the whole Far Eastern question.

According to former Secretary of State, Robert Lansing, the agreement was made to allay a mutual "feeling of suspicion" on the part of the people of Japan and America with regard to the motives of the two countries in China.

The agreement was through an exchange of notes between Secretary Lansing and Viscount Ishii, stating "that territorial proximity creates special relation between countries and consequently the government of the United States recognizes that Japan has special interests in China, particularly in the part to which her possessions are contiguous."

Open Door Upheld The agreement reiterated the American doctrine of the open door in and the territorial integrity of China.

"Who suggested the proposition of special interest?" Senator Borah asked Secretary Lansing at the hearings before the Senate foreign relations committee.

LANSING: Viscount Ishii.

BORAH: You suggested to him that

LANSING: Yes.

BORAH: What did he say in reply to that?

LANSING: He continued the discussion.

BORAH: Along what line?

LANSING: Well, along the line that he inserted it in the counter-draft of the note and urged that it be included. But he understood exactly what I interpreted the words "special interests" to mean.

BORAH: And you understood what he interpreted them to mean?

LANSING: No, I did not.

BORAH: He said his idea was that Japan had special interests in China which ought to be recognized, and by those special interests he meant paramount control?

LANSING: Yes, and I told him I would not consider it.

BORAH: Did he say: "Very well, I adopt that construction of it" or anything of that kind?

LANSING: No; but he continued to introduce the words "special interests."

"The Japanese are manifesting more and more a clear tendency to interpret the special position of Japan in China in the sense . . . that would to some extent establish a Japanese control over the foreign affairs of China," the Russian ambassador in Tokyo later reported to his government.

Divorce Is Granted; Re-Marriage Is Banned For Next Six Months

Sitting in Common Pleas court Monday Judge Thomas introduced a new wrinkle in granting a decree to the plaintiff in the divorce suit of Silas Green, South Webster, against Mary Green, Gallia street, this city, by reason of fixing the time six months hence for the decree to become operative. This means that neither of the parties may remarry until after the first of May, 1922.

They were married in July, 1917, and Green charged neglect, declaring that the defendant refused to perform her household duties, cook his meals and claimed that she neglected him for the association of other men.

The wife had nothing to say in her own defense when she was called to the witness stand further than to admit what her husband had said was true. She later explained she married young and thought she loved her husband at the time only to discover later that this affection was not real.

The plaintiff was represented by Attorneys Miller & Searl.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Last week's demand for railway shares was resumed in moderate degree at the outset of today's stock market session, the remainder of the first showing no decided trend. Atchafon, Chicago and Northwestern, Great Northern, Northern Pacific and St. Paul preferred made fractional gains. The only conspicuous feature in the industrial group was the sale of 4,500 shares of United States Steel at the maximum quotation of 84 1/2, this representing a small fractional advance. Mexican Petroleum rose one point and Crucible
Steel, Mercantile Marine preferred, Utah Copper, Associated Dry Goods and Union Pacific also were firm. American Beet Sugar preferred and American Linseed common and preferred reacted to selling pressure.

Included among the other strong rallies of the morning were Atlantic Coast Line, Louisville and Nashville and the preferred shares of Baltimore and Ohio, Ann Arbor, Lake Erie and Western, and Wisconsin Central, these gaining 1 to 3 points. Railway equipment, especially American Car, Pressed Steel Car and Railway Steel Spring preferred, rose 2 to 4 points. Speculatives were featured by the tobacco group, particularly American, Lorillard and Liggett and Meyers, these rising 2 to 3 1/2 points. The only decidedly weak features were Davidson Chemical and Sears-Roebuck, which fell 2 to 3 points, respectively. Heavy buying of representative bonds continued under load of liberty issues, but no new high records were made. Call money opened at 5 per cent.

Railroad and equipment issues led the active list to higher levels today, but the pressure against specialties and occasional profit taking caused moderate reversals. Sales approximated $50,000 shares.

The closing was irregular.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Reports that the condition of the Kansas winter wheat is the lowest ever known for November had a bullish effect on the wheat market today in the early dealings. Initial quotations, which ranged from 3 1/2 to 1 1/2 higher, with December 1.12 1/2 to 1.13 and May 1.16 1/2 to 1.17, were followed by a moderate reaction and then by a further higher than before.

Assertions that the close of navigation would bring about stoppage of export business in corn gave some advantage to bears in the corn market.
After opening the lower to a like advance, with May 5 1/2 to 5 1/2, prices underwent a general sag.

No Danger Of Flood Stage In Ohio River

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 28.—Continued rains in the Ohio valley have caused a rapid rise in the Ohio river and its tributaries. There is, however, no danger at present of a flood stage anywhere in the Cincinnati district, river men say, as fair and freezing weather is predicted. The gauge at Cincinnati early today registered 30 feet, a rise of 4.2 feet since Sunday morning. The weather bureau predicts the river will continue rising Monday night, Tuesday and Wednesday, with three to five feet more water here by Tuesday morning, after which the rise will be less rapid.

At Last, A Cohan Chorus—Clad

ELIZABETH HINES

BY JAMES W. DEAN
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—I hope he steps on his tonsils.
"Laryngitis seize him!"
"May his epiglottis close!"
These lines indicate the brand of humor in "The O'Brien Girl," George J. Cohan's only production of the season. It's rather an anatomical study. Being a Cohan show the chorus girls, of course, approach anatomical perfection. They do that, however, without a square inch of bare skin showing below the neck or above the elbow. The glide waltz danced by Elizabeth Hines, leading lady, is a symphony of anatomical motion, the most graceful dance of the day.
The dancing of Ada Mae Weeks, comedienne, presents disjointed anatomy in its funniest phases.
All in all, "The O'Brien Girl" is an elaboration on "Mary," that other Cohan musical comedy success, with fast-paced action, a prelude, better drilled chorus and a catchy song as the final piece de resistance. The latter

Arbuckle

There were bottles of whiskey, gin, water and orange juice on a table in the room where the guests were, he said. Fred Fischbach, his room mate, supplied the liquor, he said.

Arbuckle testified in a loud, clear voice, and seemed at ease in every way. He denied knowledge of the source of the liquor other than it was procured by Fischbach. He was eating breakfast when the guests arrived, he said.

The witness said he drank some "high balls" after breakfast. Miss Kappé asked that a piano be brought in, but later a phonograph was produced. There was much dancing after that, he said.

Arbuckle said he had made an engagement with Mrs. Taube the day before the party "to go out" the next day.

"I did not see Miss Kappé dance," he said. "I danced with Miss Blake." Lowell Sherman, an actor, Sena-macher and Ira Fortinuis, salesman, were there while the dancing was in progress, he said.

Arbuckle said he had Sherman ask Fortinuis to leave the rooms during the party.

Mrs. Taube came while the party was in progress and said she would "call back," he said.

Mrs. Taube asked, "Who are all these people?"

"Search me, I don't know," Arbuckle said he replied.

Then Mrs. Taube left, he said.

Fischbach was out in Arbuckle's automobile during most of the party," he said.

"Mrs. Taube seemed 'peevish,'" Arbuckle said. "She probably left because she was 'peevish' at the guests of the party."

"Mrs. Taube was introduced to Miss Kappé," he said.

"Miss Kappé was dressed in green skirt and jacket," he said. "I don't think her hair was down."

"I did not see her go into my room," Arbuckle fingered a lead pencil continually during the examination, tapping it occasionally on the court reporter's table. He answered without hesitation while under cross-examination.

Hessie Barricade in "The Skirt," Girl posing at cowboy. Written by Howard Hickman, star's husband. Doomed to early failure.

"Conway Tearle in 'The Mad Dog,' Lustrous melodrama. So gloomy it dims the footlights.

Will Rogers in the Midnight Frolic, Rogers—that's enough.

A commentary on shows, critics and the public. Every critic has assailed "The Demi-Virgin" as worthless. A stunt-pull without pungency. Selections from without point. And the show has moved to a theater with greater seating capacity.

Building Crafts Will Meet

There will be a mass meeting of all Building Trades Crafts at Plumbers' hall in Carr Building, Wednesday, Nov. 30, 7:30 p. m.

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE TO SEE METEOR

Have you ever seen a meteor? Well, if you haven't drop around at J. J. Brushart's Gallia street grocery and you will see one which recently fell on the Scioto Trail.

It was picked up by Joseph Briggs and weighs about 3 pounds. It is about twice the size of a baseball and is solid stone with all kinds of peculiar marks on it.

Musical Store Is Refurnished

W. F. Bradford has completed improvements to his music store in the Leiman property on Gallia street, just east of Chalmers street and now has one of the most up to date music stores in the city.

His room has been completely refurnished and new fixtures have been installed. Mr. Bradford has for many years been one of the city's leading piano and music dealers and his store is complete in every detail.

Conferring About River Route

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 28.—Advocates of the along-the-river-route between Portsmouth and Cincinnati for that portion of the proposed Atlantic and Pacific highway east of Cincinnati met here today at the Chamber of Commerce.

Delegations from Portsmouth, Ripley, Moscow, Aberdeen and Higginsport Ohio, and Mayville, Ky. John Hainsman of New Richmond, Ohio, former attorney general of the Philippine Islands, presided.

A poor beginning may lead to a good ending, but it is not likely to do so if one has started to tumble downstairs.

BIRTHS

"Chick" Newman, popular switchman employed in the local N. & W. route, was killed by a gas engine train, passing his river boat town Sunday to spread the news of the arrival of a fine nine-pound baby at his home, 1720 Twelfth street. The new arrival is a lively youngster and looks just like his dear dad.

Callihan Better

The condition of James Callihan, East Portsmouth boy, in Hempstead hospital suffering with punctures of the intestines, caused by a rifle bullet, was reported a little better today. He was accidentally wounded a week ago Sunday night.

To Serve 60 Days In Jail

Zeke Moore of New Boston, arrested there Sunday by Deputy Marshal Dewey Parson, was under a sixty days suspended jail sentence and when he was brought before Mayor J. S. Sees Danger In "Equality" Law

MRS. FLORENCE KELLEY AND SENATOR CURTIS

Women Split On "Equal Rights"

Mrs. Florence Kelley, Suffrage Advocate, Says Amendment Perils Workers

By NEA Service
WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The 20th constitutional amendment, calculated to equalize the rights of women and men, threatens to bring about a split in the ranks of feminist leaders.

The amendment prescribes that "no civil or legal disabilities or inequalities on account of sex or marriage, unless applying equally to both sexes, shall exist in the United States."

Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, is expected to introduce the amendment on the Senate floor next month. Meanwhile, the National Woman's Party is giving the measure vigorous aid, pledging to follow it with similar state legislation in all states.

Now comes Mrs. Florence Kelley of the National Consumers' League always a supporter of woman suffrage and political equality. She opposes the amendment.

In a letter to Senator Curtis she says: "That the amendment can be construed as rendering unconstitutional present state legislation protecting women in industry."

"That 'equality on account of marriage' might be construed to force the husband of a working wife to cease work while the wife is forced to give up employment during childbirth."

Mrs. Kelley also has attacked the amendment in letters to Miss Maud Younger of the National Woman's Party and Miss Ethel Smith of the Women's Trade Union League.

Sciotoville Wins

The fast Sciotoville Selects triumphed over the Wheelersburg professionals Saturday night at Wheelersburg by a score of 31 to 21. The losers did not have a chance with the well organized Sciotoville team composed of former high school stars who made their points by rapid fire passing, team work and accurate basket shooting. The feature of the game was the shooting of Edwards who is always hard to stop. Edwards at center, Powell and Weller, forwards form a combination hard to beat.
O. Craycraft and Mack played a stellar game for Wheelersburg.
The Sciotoville Selects are ready to hook games with any team in the county. The play the South Webster

Nelson Gets Stiff Sentence

"You have been here just once too often," said Mayor J. S. Davis of New Boston to Fred Nelson when he appeared before him this morning for the twentieth time in as many months to answer to a charge of drunkenness. "One hundred dollars and costs and six months in the county jail," was the penalty imposed by Mayor Davis, who added that he would see to it that Nelson served every day of the sentence. He was arrested Sunday night by Deputy Marshal Ray McCormick. He was in the village jail last week but was turned over to Portsmouth authorities who released him on his promise to go to work.

Stinnes Says Europe Being Treated As Negligible Quantity At Arms Meet

BERLIN, November 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Europe is being treated as a negligible quantity at the Washington conference, in the opinion of the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, the organ of Hugo Stinnes, leading German financier. It sees evidence in the circumstances that curtailment of naval armaments has been given primary consideration, that the issue of land armament is not causing the conference apprehension. This attitude of the conference, says the newspaper, gives France "an indefinite franchise to continue her devastation of the European mainland."
The speech of Premier Briand, outlining to the conference France's need for a large army, is characterized as "purely speculative in American sentimentality and credulity."
"It was an act of bravura on the part of the political premiere and a piece of the newspaper's propaganda," the newspaper declares, "and it would be an insult to M. Briand's intelligence to assume that he himself believed a single word of that which he addressed to the delegates and the galleries."
The newspaper considers an impossible achievement any attempt to convert "the capitalistic powers of Europe into Chinese coolies at the very moment the United States is endeavoring to bring the Chinese to the level of the capitalistic order of society."
The aggressive manner in which China presented her case to the conference is not warranted by her internal situation and can be explained only on the ground that she is sure of American backing," says the paper in discussing the American Far East policy.

SOCIETY

The Woman's National Foundation. What is the Woman's National Foundation?
For what does it stand?
Women—and men, too, are asking these questions.

"The W. N. F. is so immense in its objective that the mind must be very receptive to grasp the full purpose of it. In Washington, D. C., the headquarters of the Foundation this winter, gives an opportunity to present fully the claims of this wonderful organization to miff the activities of not only American women, but women of all parts of the world. Those who are not so fortunate as to be in Washington this winter are deprived of a remarkably privilege, because Washington, besides being the Capital of the United States of America, is the capital of the world while the Armament conference is in session there. Religious denominations and women's organizations are assembling world-wide exhibits of their missionary and humanitarian achievements to which the foreign representatives to the disarmament conference are invited. The potentates and ambassadors with the ladies who have accompanied their husbands to the conference, receive surprise and profound interest in these exhibits. The W. N. F. is up with the profession in displaying its eulogies to the visitors. A wonderful pageant—rather a gathering of pageants was the form chosen by the W. N. F. to explain its purposes. The magnificent hall rooms of the new Willard hotel were the scenes of this novel display. The international scope of the W. N. F. found expression by giving a pageant of each nation that is to be approached by the Foundation. Incidental music included a rendition of the National hymn of each nation in its individual display. A fine representation to the conference accepted an invitation graciously and expressed surprise and approval over the purposes of the Foundation. Women who are visitors from the foreign nations are visiting the W. N. F. with the avowed intention of carrying on the good work at home. American women are the most highly favored in the world and since they have been enfranchised, their opportunities are enlarged, permitting them to take part in public affairs more fully than ever. The kindly spirit of American women will find expression through the medium of the W. N. F. as a bulletin to the public, will explain, thoroughly every measure before congress; issue information concerning American ideas of home-keeping—in fact will endeavor to cultivate through Americanism in homes, morals, language, movements of importance to the nation. Every member will be provided with an opportunity to express a written opinion on all public questions by means of a coupon to be issued in the bulletin. This coupon to be a vote in a referendum on such questions.

Mrs. Samuel Horchow, organizer for this district, received an invitation to the pageant, and both she and the members of the local center of the W. N. F. regret that she could not be present at her wonderful event.
All loyal American women of good character are eligible to join this organization, no matter when their ancestors came to America.
The Legal Bureau Bible Class of the Graceview Avenue church will meet in regular business session tomorrow evening at seven o'clock at the church. Every member is urged to be present as officers for the new year will be elected and other important business taken up.

Your Life Prospect.
White males, who have reached the age of ten, can expect on the average to live 50 years more. A generation ago the figure was only 46 years. The life of man has thus been increased four years in about a generation, says a leading life insurance company. Woman's gain has not been as great. Her life expectancy is about fifty-two years, a gain of a little more than a year and a quarter. But she still leads man. This prolonging of life, says the insurance company, is the result of campaigns of health, education and public health service. That, and not money glands, in the long run will prove to be the road to an average lifetime of one hundred and fifty years.

The Solar System.
The astronomer, Copernicus, who lived from 1473 to 1543, laid down as the foundation of his explanation of the solar system that the sun was fixed and that the earth and all the planets moved around it. Kepler (1571-1630) found that the planets moved in ellipses, not circles, round the sun. Kepler deduced three conclusions, respecting the movements of the planets, known as Kepler's Three Laws, and Sir Isaac Newton (1642-1727) proved that they are a consequence of a single universal law of gravitation.

Juniors Smother Waverly, 25 To 6

Showing a better offensive and defensive than their opponents the Smoke House Juniors waded through, and ended is right, the Waverly American Legion Bears on the Sixteenth street field Sunday morning to the tune of the 25 to 6. The Juniors outplayed the visitors in every department of the game and earned every one of their four touchdowns.

Robert Woods, Cleveland and Dixon starred for the Juniors in making gains while Doehner played a long up game on the line. He performed at tackle and got through the Waverly line several times and threw the Waverly backs for big losses.

The first touchdown came in the first quarter when the Juniors had punted four times on first downs and allowed Waverly to work hard in an effort to get into the Juniors' territory. Portsmouth received the ball in the middle of the field on a punt and from there took it over for a touchdown. Woods went through the line for big gains while Cleveland and Robert carried the ends for big gains. Cleveland carried the ball to within a few yards of the goal from which point Robert carried over. Smith failed to kick.

The Juniors again worked the ball down to Waverly's one yard line just as the first quarter ended. The second quarter opened with Woods carrying the ball through the line for six yards. Smith failed to kick. This touchdown was the result of a Waverly fumble in the center of the field. Schmidt picking up the ball and making about 20 yards before he was downed.

Waverly Scores
Just as the first half ended Waverly carried the ball over for a touchdown after carrying it down the field in a series of plunges. Fullback Mitchell doing most of the work. Quarterback Smith carried the ball over but failed to kick goal.

Waverly carried the ball to the one yard line and lost it on downs. Portsmouth punted from behind the goal. Robert fumbling and being forced to punt almost straight up, the ball going only 10 yards in front of the goal, from which point Waverly worked it back to the Juniors' goal.

In the third quarter the Juniors annexed another with Woods making the touchdown. The ball was taken deep into Waverly territory by Dixon and Cleveland. Dixon caught a punt and made a 35 yard run to Waverly's 25 yard line. Cleveland then sneaked through for about 15 yards and short line backs then carried the ball over. Dixon kicking goal.

Final Score
The final touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Fullback Woods carried the ball over for the 25th point. The Juniors received the ball in Waverly territory on a punt and lost no time in getting the ball across the goal. Woods going through straight up. Goal was not kicked.

With a few seconds to play Portsmouth blocked a Waverly punt in the middle of the field and just as the whistle sounded a long pass to Blair was completed. The gain on this pass being about 25 yards, putting Portsmouth in position to score again. Early in the first quarter the Juniors had Waverly behind their own goal line and threw Waverly for a touch-down.

Iowa Is Planning To Meet Yale

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Comes now the business of drafting football schedules for the 1922 season.

Couches of the western conference will meet here a week from today to map out the gridiron programs for next year and because of the spectacular windup of the 1921 race, gridiron followers are indulging in a lot of speculation regarding the schedules of Ohio State and Iowa, who fought out this year's championship.

The eastern invasion of Chicago, which resulted in a 9 to 0 triumph over Princeton, has started a movement for east vs. west games next season. Chicago already has arranged to play Princeton in a return game here early in October and Iowa, 1921 advance indications, probably will arrange a game with Yale to be played in the east. Illinois is negotiating for a game with a representative Southern eleven to be played in Memphis, while Michigan is considering a game with Vanderbilt for the second week in October.

Yost Gets Vote Of Confidence

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 28.—Absolute confidence in the coaching ability of Fielding H. Yost, mentor of the University of Michigan gridiron squad, was voiced here at the annual meeting of the "M" club. The "M" club is an organization composed of former students of the university who have won their letters in major sports.

A resolution expressing this opinion was passed unanimously by the organization.

The resolution took occasion to denounce particularly a measure passed by the Grand Rapids (Mich.) Alumni association of the University of Michigan against Yost after the defeat of the Wolverines at the hands of the Ohio State team.

Team Has A $200 Handicap

With a $200 handicap by reason of its high-salaried birds the Tanks opened their game Sunday with Wellston with a real handicap. The coal barons received at least $200 so it can be seen that Tanktown must have had many towns folks out or expenses would not be paid. And the crowd was disappointingly small. And Ironton is still whistling for its share of the local receipts. If the management has any tears to shed prepare to shed them.

Cornell Best Scoring Machine

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Leadership of college players of the east in individual scoring for the season goes to Eddie Kaw, the brilliant Cornell back, whose sensational finish against Penn last Thursday was just enough to nose out Malcolm Alrich, of Yale.

The Yale captain, however, carried off the honors in field goal kicking with five to his credit. Hanson, of Cornell, leads by a 6½ margin in goals kicked from touchdowns, having made 27 accurate boots from the 15 yard mark.

Cornell outscored all other colleges by a wide margin, completing its campaign with a total of 392 points in 8 games. Lafayette, which was second in scoring, tallied 274 points.

Rosemount Road Breaks Losing Streak

Saturday night at Wilhelmette hall the Rosemount Stars beat a fast five from Sciotoville 31-14. The game was fast and exciting all the way through.

The Sciotoville boys were clever and fast, but were off to shooting. B. Collins, Robinson and Barney were on the firing line for the Stars, getting 29 of the 31 points made. Collins lead while Robinson and Barney came in for a good share of the baskets. When this trio gets down to business, aided by good guarding, they will be hard to stop. Kearns and R. Collins played a fine game on guards. The Stars won their game on brilliant passwork.

Like the Sciotoville boys, the Stars have been handicapped by the lack of practice. Both teams will soon develop into teams that will make it hard going for any Junior team. The Stars would like to hear from Peoples, Oway, West Union or any team that cares to go in touch with them. For dates, write Bruce Collins, Portsmouth, Ohio, Scioto Trail.

The girls of Rosemount would like to hear from any girls' team in this vicinity. For games phone Miss Lucile Noel, 3502-R.

The Lineups for Saturday's game:
B. Collins RF C. Evans
B. Barney LF B. Edwards
O. Robinson C B. Powell
O. Kearns RG C. Sparks
R. Collins LC H. Scott

Field Goals—B. Collins 8; C. Barney 2; O. Robinson 2; Gable 1; Edwards 3; Powell 2; Evans 2.

Foul Goals—Robinson.
Subs—E. Gable for B. Collins; Schuler for Kearns.

Referee—George Doll.

One Eye Mule Is Kicked Out

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Jinx, the stubborn one-eyed mule, the West Point cadets borrowed from the Fort Bloom remount station for a football mascot, has been kicked out.

Braying his dissatisfaction, Jinx started on his homeward journey without a step of leg or a single ant. He blinked his good right eye and made a move to project his rear hoofs in the general direction of two cadet mules, but they anticipated him.

If Jinx, the mule named after the game, had won Saturday's game he would have been paraded through the hall room of a swell hotel and put up for the night in a commodious, hay-filled, curtained stall on the roof.

The poor eye of the mule is sightless, and the X-ray's touchdown followed a plunge through the left end of the Army line.

Punts and Passes

And one Waverly player yesterday were a pair of real shin-guards. He probably thought all they did in a football game was to kick.

Speaking of pugilistic tilts get set for the Porter-Blair tangle. It will be worth seeing.

Puzzle: If four Tanks get $200 and the opponents $200 and the receipts reach $275, where does the other player come in? Through the little hole the boy shot at.

Waverly had its coach and two high school griders in its backfield and they played real football.

The Tanks are flirting with a touchdown on the field of bankruptcy. When Cannonville cannot win from Coalton might as well close up shop. You tell 'em roof it's over our head.

If the Blue and White want another end next season, they could go further and do worse than giving Blair a chance. This lad looks better every time out.

Pittsburg has a player named Weeny. Hot dog.

One Waverly player was dolled up like a banker yesterday, and everything. Gee but he was a cute little devil.

Ironton says they got by here without having to face much Chin music. Yes, but some busted Ironton's G string.

Any team that is held to a tie is usually beaten. How about it Tanks?

Waverly delayed the game yesterday while looking for its quarter—footballistically not momentarily speaking.

Good evening. Have you picked your All-American team yet?

Now comes the story that the seating capacity of the Yale Bowl is to be increased from 75,000 to 120,000. Of course football is dead. Yes, almost.

Z... Will Defend Title

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Stanislaus Zyzsko, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, will defend his title here tonight in a two-in-three title match with Ed (Strangler) Lewis, formerly of Lexington, Ky. More than 40 years old, Zyzsko won the title from Lewis last spring, pinning the Kentuckian's shoulders to the mat when he missed an attempt for a headlock and fell heavily.

Lewis won the championship from Joe Steezy last December and lost it to Zyzsko the following May.

French Tennis Official Resigns Over Mlle. Lenglen Row; Defends American

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Nov. 28.—(U.P.) Albert M. De Jannins, who accompanied Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, the French tennis player, to the United States last summer, has tendered his resignation as vice-president of the French tennis federation, and also as a member of the organization.

M. De Jannins resigned in protest against the federation's "order of the day," published in the morning newspapers today, blaming the directors of the "United States Lawn Tennis Federation" for unjustified commentaries upon the sporting spirit of Mlle. Lenglen.

The resignation of M. De Jannins is the climax of a controversy that has been going on inside the tennis federation since the return to France from the United States of Mlle. Lenglen and her party. M. De Jannins was accused of having urged the French player to engage in tennis matches while physically unfit to do so.

M. De Jannins told the Associated Press today that thus far he had refrained from commenting on the criticism leveled against him owing to his delicate position and in view of the fact that a woman's name was at stake, but that the attacks became so bitter when the United States Lawn Tennis Association was brought into the argument that he had to abandon his reserve.

"Mlle. Lenglen," said M. De Jannins today, "was perfectly fit when she met Mrs. Molla Burslett Maloney at Forest Hills, Mlle. Lenglen was defeated by a player who on that date showed a better brand of tennis."

"I shook hands with Mlle. Lenglen before she entered the court. Her hand was cool and her pulse normal. She was confident. She only commenced coughing after having lost the games. I blame her for absolutely refusing to continue when I could have obtained a recess of half an hour, perhaps an hour, through the sporting spirit of the tennis officials and the large crowd.

"Suzanne's attacks against the United States Lawn Tennis official and the public are absolutely unwarranted. She was received like a little queen and treated with the utmost courtesy. Her every whim and mood was satisfied."

"She knows how to win, but she doesn't know how to lose gracefully. She placed the personality of Suzanne before the good name of the sporting world of her country, and could not face defeat.

Wellston Holds Tanks To Scoreless Tie

Three cheers for the Wellston team. Without any paid players in its lineup and only home boys to round it out the eleven yesterday held the high priced Tanks to a scoreless tie. The game was staged on a rain drenched field in Tanktown before a fair sized crowd.

The Wellston team says it would have won on a dry field as most of the play took place in Tank territory. What does the Ironton fans think of the Tanks today? They could not beat Wellston despite the fact that "Red" Weaver, All-American center player with the Tanks as did Haulmond, Blevins and Shannon, Grant, ing that these players received $50 each, where did the other Ironton players get off? And Wellston did not play for a sack of peanuts. Ironton will wake up one of these days and see its great mistake.

Whether a town that is on the gasoline circuit has to go out and hire paid players to get a football team said team will not be in existence very long. Especially when it cannot win decisively from nearby towns. The Tanks at home only beat Ashland, 7 to 0 and Wellston and Portsmouth held them to a tie.

Now if they cannot beat these teams, who can they beat?

DISARMAMENT AND BUSINESS

IN view of the consternation which the British government's order for cessation of work on capital warships caused in shipbuilding circles on the Clyde, where the contracts were furnishing work for thousands of men, it is a pleasure to note Judge Elbert H. Gary's prophecy that in the end disarmament will make for business prosperity. As chairman of the board of directors of a great corporation engaged in the manufacture of steel, the material which more than any other enters into arms and armor, his remarks are of extraordinary importance. "If means for the firm establishment and maintenance of peace can be found and generally assented to," he said, "it will mark an epoch of the greatest business prosperity, as well as the largest measure of happiness that the world has ever witnessed."

Judge Gary showed a spirit well worthy of the emulation of munition manufacturers the world over when he said that even if disarmament a large decrease in steel manufacture, "no sane and right-spirited person would consider pecuniary interest as of any importance when discussing national or international welfare."

That suspension of work on the English battleships will throw thousands of men out of work is regrettable, but their welfare cannot be permitted to stand in the way of the welfare of the English people and of the world. Sir Percy Scott, a naval expert, asserts that the British government's action will save the British taxpayers a hundred million pounds. The effect which it will have on the world's morale will be of incalculable benefit.

GOOD EXAMPLE FOR JAPAN

SUSPENSION by Great Britain of work on her four Hood-type battleships and the resolution pending in congress to suspend all American naval construction are facts for Japan to ponder over, whether or there is any deliberate design to influence her by example in the matter of armament limitation.

The British ships are not yet laid down, but that does not diminish the significance of the London decision. Money has been expended on them and costly preparatory work was under way. Suspension of these activities is most worthy compliance with the spirit of the popular movement for establishment of durable peace through eliminating the potential causes of war and limiting the means of prosecuting hostilities. It is laudable.

Naturally Japan has ideas of her own on how far it is safe for her to go in curtailing her naval strength. At the moment her request for more warships than would be permitted her under the Hughes plan makes a distinctly bad impression. The Japanese representatives think she needs them for defense. Defense against what and whom? In order to make a case in support of her claim Japan will have to show substantial reasons for fearing any nation. Then she will have to demonstrate the ability of that country to attack her successfully. Her chief reliance for safety is her geographical position. The chief reliance for safety or others must be the limitation of any country's defensive forces to a point that, assuring adequate protection, they may not be diverted to aggressive offensive uses.

Possibly Japan advances her claim simply to draw out all the arguments, to enable thorough examination of the problem. Certainly any member of the conference who evinces a disposition to obstruct the fulfillment of the popular desire—the Japanese people's desire as well as that of westerners—will find itself in a decidedly uncomfortable position. Japan scarcely will run the risk involved in opposition.

WHAT RATS COST

BECAUSE the rat is declared to be the worst enemy of mankind the biological survey of the United States department of agriculture calls on the American people to exterminate the pest. Not only does it inflict immense property loss, but in addition it is a carrier of disease. It is estimated that a rat in the field, the house, the barn or the store costs $2 a year to maintain, and there are as many rats in the store as there are men, women and children. Two hundred million dollars' worth of foodstuffs consumed or destroyed each year in America by rats. That represents the material loss.

The germs of the plagues that in the past have killed more human beings than all the wars of history are now known to have been spread by rats. The rat is such a loathsome animal that it is strange it has been permitted to survive. It is true that it is a bit difficult to eradicate it, but there are many methods of destroying it. However, that pest to which we are accustomed is the one about which we are prone to worry the least. If it was some new menace like the corn borer or some other plant enemy we might get excited and quarantined against it.

In return for independence China ought to be willing to surrender the laundry privilege in the United States.

It was the kaiser who defeated limitation of armaments at the last Hague conference. Look at him now.

Washing Silver.

Silver should be washed in very hot and very soapy water. It should then be rinsed in very hot water and dried at once. Never let silver drain. If water is left on the silver there will be a tendency for the silver to blacken. If you have a little dish containing salt, or perhaps an old salt shaker kept specially for this purpose, beside your sink, it is a simple matter to dip spoons and forks that have been discolored by eggs. But do this as soon as the piece is discolored; don't wait until the discoloration has eaten deep into the fork or spoon.

Buenos Aires "Spotless Town."

Sunrise every morning finds Buenos Aires fresh washed, clean as a Dutch housewife's doorstep and something like a hospital. This is a result of the thorough washing given all the streets every night and the liberal doses of disinfectant spread about to check communicable diseases. Every night gangs of white clad men, armed with brooms and hoses, appear and undertake to rout out any chance germs that may be lurking in gutters and dark corners. But this is only a part of the city's constant war on disease. It also carries on educational campaigns, using posters principally to warn the people of the means by which disease is spread.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, November 28.—A march on the back of a theatre program one night while "Dances in Town" was in the first throes of creation. He misplaced the program and it was not until a week later that the refrain came back to him. This march and Sousa's "On To Victory"—another old favorite—were played by a military band the other day and I followed it from the Central Park Plaza to Madison Square. And there the band halted to enter a hall where a Birth Control meeting was in progress. It seemed to me almost a sacrilege.

Cosmos

Cosmos, that comes us
The garden goes,
Borrow the delicate Shades of the rose.

Others are dropping or Running away,
Cosmos is fresh as a Morning in May.

She swings on her tall,
Green, slender stem,
Nodding a salient
Farewell to them.

Who shrink from the wind
And the cold, still night,
And pack up their beauty
And hurry from sight.

Her petals have delicate Sutiny sheen,
Her leaves are the freshest and Daintiest green.

The late honey-bee who Adventures will find
Her a hostess as charming and Welcome as kind.

As ever he found under Pleasant skies,
When gardens were richer with Honey and eyes.

I saw one this morning and Listened to hear What the bees say at
This time of the year.

Encouragement

An easterner was touring Illinois in his car and had several mishaps. His wife's curiosity being excited by a certain proceeding of his in this relation, she finally asked:
"I notice that every time the car breaks down you fish out your state license and examine it very carefully. Why do you do that?"
"For encouragement, my dear," replied the motorist. "The license states that I am competent to operate the machine."

Wise Jottings

The smile of adversity is rather icy. Leaders are born—and likewise also followers.
When grafters fall out, honest men get a run for their money.
Jolliness is the key to poverty.
A guard chain should always be on the watch.
A woman always considers herself charitable when she lets her husband have his own way.

Response Was Pat

The church buildings of Jeffersonville are nearly all close to each other in one precinct, known as the "church block." Two of the churches in this precinct occupy opposite corners at one street intersection. Services are held at the same hours, and the piously can often hear two congregations singing simultaneously. The other day this is what happened:
From the open doors and windows of one church floated out the strains: "Will there be any stars in my crown?"
Like an echo there came from the other church to the grinning outsider, this response:
"No, not one; no, not one."—Indianapolis News.

The Epidemic

"Oh! here is January first again, And all day long and 'way into the night
The scratch of numerous pens and quills I hear:
The ink's infrenzied blots and splashes reign,
And all my friends present a woeful sight:
The epidemic of resolves is here!"
—Harold McGrath.

A Credit Woman

"I should like to open an account at this bank, if you please."
"We shall be glad to accommodate you, madam. What amount do you wish to deposit?"
"Oh, I mean a charge account, such as I have at the dry goods stores."

Defined

"Did you notice those two new fellows at the boarding-house this morning?"
"Yes; one is a farmer and the other a city man."
"How could you tell?"
"The farmer said: 'Will you pass the cream, please?' and the city man asked: 'Is there any milk in that pitcher?'"

Infatigable Signs

"How far have you studied English history, John?" inquired Miss Cross, the new governess, as she and John and smugly sisters settled down to their first lesson together.
"Just as far as my history book is dirty, Miss Cross," said John.
